

Fact File

My guidance for attempting to break the world record for the Largest cartoon

Get ready to paint and paint until the end of the world. Well, not quite that long, but you will be painting for an awful long time. Even before you get that far, you might tire yourself out because the plans required aren't what one could call insignificant. In no way. This takes dedication and a lot of hard work. Having said this, we did it, so there's nothing to say you can't.

To start, gear up for a few rules, such as:

- use a cartoon with the minimum number of frames.
- use a syndicated cartoon.
- have witnesses present.

Don't even think this might be possible for your next weekend get-together. How long it takes to get this right is really up to you, though. Sometimes in life, as we found when we made this giant cartoon, it was who we knew that made all the difference. I hope you've got a few friends in high places...

Still keen? WorldRecordChase.com is happy to mentor others wishing to attempt this world record, at reasonable rates.

Enjoy.

Please note: neither Alastair Galpin nor WorldRecordChase.com will be responsible for any actions whatsoever undertaken by any person as a result of visiting this website. If you intend to attempt to emulate any of Alastair's world record attempts, always seek expert advice.