My guidance for attempting to break the world record for the Loudest clap

It would be pretty clear to you and everyone else if you had reason to believe your clap is louder than any other. If that's not the case, I'd say you have a choice: move on or put in the effort. This was a very easy world record for me to attain, but it still required committed planning and admin. Time will tell if you can do that.

To start, gear up for a few rules, such as:

- book a suitable location.
- have qualified people with you.

There's one point I ought to mention. How do you think you'd measure this? I wish you the best in your efforts to get that part in order.

Enjoy.
