My guidance for attempting to break the world record for the Most finger snaps in one minute

I think it would be obvious to you and those you associate with if you were able to snap your fingers at such a rate, nobody could beat you. Have you tried this in a club or at a function? Who knows; you may meet a new friend that way. Even if you get a result this way which you don't like, at least you won't then waste your time planning unless you know you can make it to the top. But if you are sure you've got the ability, then begin by finding out what the current world record is. If you get that far, you're going to need fingers that can snap away like a machine set to repetitive automation, let me warn you.

To start, gear up for a few rules, such as:

- book a suitable location.
- have qualified people with you.

And just because this looks easy doesn't mean you can be casual about it. You will still need to treat the admin seriously. Now it's over to you.

Still keen? WorldRecordChase.com is happy to mentor others wishing to attempt this world record, at reasonable rates.

Enjoy.
