My guidance for attempting to break the world record for the Longest line of M&M pretzels in 30 seconds

Anyone can eat an M&M. But can you line them up faster than any person alive? Here's your chance. Get that elbow of yours working really quickly, and become nimble with your fingertips right away. Then use your speed to create that winning line of coloured chocolate balls.

To start, gear up for a few rules, such as:

- use M&M pretzels.
- make sure the table is level.

Don't just presume you can do this. Give it a try. Find out what's involved in turning this play with food into a world record. And remember not to eat all the chocolates you need for the task!
