My guidance for attempting to break the world record for the Furthest pea blow

Do you love peas? Me too. Let me tell you about the best peas in the world. They're the ones we can blow for fun. If you get excited at the thought, you'll be overjoyed to discover that blowing a garden pea could become a world record. But, in this case, just think of how you'd go about it. Blowing little peas takes effort!

To start, gear up for a few rules, such as:

- take measuring equipment.
- use a level floor.
- have witnesses present.

Make sure you can manipulate those lips of yours to funnel your breath in the most productive way. So, if I were you, I'd start exercising: stretch your lips, push them out, draw them in and pull lots of faces to make them supple. Why not get on with it in public? I bet you'll have people laughing. Good luck!
