My guidance for attempting to break the world record for the Most snails on the face

When I did it, this world record brought fame to only a handful of snails. If you tried it now, you'd need a truckload of the creatures. That shouldn't discourage you at all, should it? I mean, surely it wouldn't matter if 8 or 78 snails slithered across your face at once.

To start, gear up for a few rules, such as:

- use snails that aren't in danger.
- ensure the timekeeper is accurate.

I needed plenty of time to collect all the shelled little ones I needed. Of my own choice, I wanted to care for them too, so I paid the captives attention and was always mindful of their right to excellent treatment. I hope you would do the same since they've got feelings too.

Enjoy.
